---

Dear Mr. President,

The Egyptian students in North America express their condolences to the American people and the US government for all the victims of Hurricane Katrina.

This catastrophe calls for all people regardless of their race, ethnic background and religion to work together hand in hand to help and provide emotional and financial support to those in need. We have an obligation as Egyptian students learning and living in this country to provide all the help we can. We will stand foot to foot and shoulder to shoulder with the American Nation in the relief efforts of the hurricane's aftermath.

Finally I would like to salute the National Guard, FEMA and everyone who contributed to the management of this crisis.

Sincerely,

Tamer Mahmoud

ESANA President
